

EL CENTRO LATINO PROUDLY PRESENTS

An Evening with Author and Photo Journalist

David Bacon

Monday, April 19, 2010

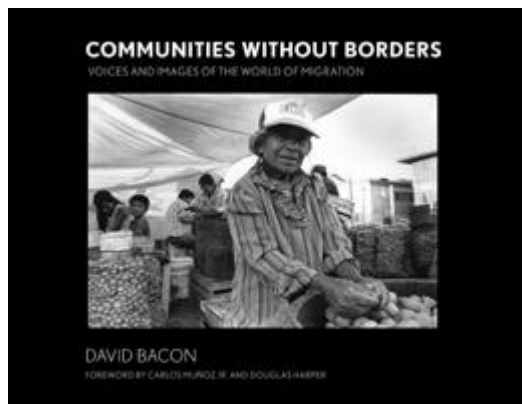

7 to 9 pm

North Star Music Cafe

225 Congress Street

Portland, Maine

“David Bacon demonstrates remarkable breadth, insight, and creativity through his diverse documentary photography, oral history, and writing. The story he tells of migration communities—and the stories he lets those communities tell through their own eloquent words, on their own terms—is one of universal importance grounded in the specifics of a range of experiences. This book stands as a model for careful and responsible documentary work and provides much-needed depth and nuance to one of the central issues of our time.”—Tom Rankin, Director, Center for Documentary Studies at Duke University.
