

Immigration, Trade and Community

A talk and discussion with renowned journalist & photographer

David Bacon

Saturday April 17th

4:30 PM

Unitarian Universalist Church | 154 Park Street, Bangor

Join activists around Maine to learn how we can work together for labor and immigrant rights and fair trade.

Renowned photo-journalist and author David Bacon is coming to Bangor to share his views on where the immigration movement stands today! David spent twenty years as a union organizer, and is the author of a number of books, most recently, Illegal People. His work has appeared in TruthOut, The Nation, The American Prospect, The Progressive, the San Francisco Chronicle, and other publications. (For more about David, check out his website: <http://dbacon.igc.org/>)

(Co-sponsored by: El Centro Latino Maine, Maine Fair Trade Campaign, Maine Migrant Health Program, Maine People's Alliance, Mano en Mano, PICA – Power in Community Alliances, Social Justice Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Society of Bangor, and University of Maine Central America Service Association)

For more information contact:

PICA
170 Park St., Bangor, ME 04401
207-947-4203, www.pica.ws, info@pica.ws

